Scene From Uncle Tom's Cabin at the Grand Next Week.

Perhaps there has never been so lavish and adequate a production of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" as that which Mr. Kibbie will offer amusement lovers next week at the Grand, commencing with a matinee tomorrow. The scenes, which are large enough to fill the most spacious stage, could not easily be improved. Those representing the Ohio river in winter, the rocky pass in which George Harris protects his family, the St. Clair plantation, the levee at New Orleans, the cotton fields in full bloom and the "Celestial City" are all the most notable efforts, each picture being the reality as closely as that which paint and canvas will permit, and the stage perspective is so deep that the effect is exceptionally pleasing. The company is worthy of its environment. So many skilled actors have never before been engaged together as in this play. Frank Lee, the eminent minstrel star, offers an excellent study of "Uncle Tom," preserving the atmosphere and accept of the old slave to a remarkable degree. There will be a street parade daily.

GRAND BALL.

By Commercial Club Employees at Bowli Hall.

The Grand Inaugural Ball which was to have occurred under the auspices of the Commercial Club employees, April 20th, but was postponed, will take place on next Thursday evening, May 14, at Bowli Hall, corner Sixth and Robert streets, St. Paul.

This is not an affair for the purpose of making money for a few, but each man has contributed his pro rata of the money for the expenses and is anxious to make it the biggest social event of the season. Refreshments will be served free. The Commercial orchestra will furnish music.

Tickets, couple, $1.50; extra lady, 50 cents.

Each lady will be presented a souvenir boutonniere.

Prof. J. K. Hamilton and A. Winstead, floor managers.

SILVER WEDDING.

Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Parker Celebrate Their Twenty-Fifth Wedding Anniversary.

On Saturday evening, April 25, the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick D. Parker was the scene of one of the most delightful social functions of the year, the occasion being the celebration of their "silver wedding" or twenty-fifth anniversary of their wedding. The house was crowded to its utmost capacity.

Floral decorations were similar, white and pink roses and carnations in parlor and reception rooms, "1883-1908" being placed at one end of the room.

The dining room was a harbor of flowers, the center table a thing of beauty and elegance, with a centerpiece of rare white and pink roses, with white and blue and white ribbon extending across the table, large bows of Nile green and white ribbons caught up with bridal flowers, the color scheme being pink, white and green.

The musical programme rendered was of an exceptionally high order. Messrs. T. R. Morgan, Chas. Mitchell and E. J. Murphy, Mesdames F. A. Owens, J. A. Roberts and T. H. Lyles, Misses Adina and Margaret Adams taking part. The Colridge Taylor quartette gave the company a genuine surprise by appearing and rendering several of their choice selections.

Ladies who assisted were Mrs. W. H. Parker, Mrs. Allen French, Mrs. Carrie Mills, Mrs. M. Barksdall, Mrs. J. H. Dillingham, Mrs. J. B. Johnson, Mrs. H. Rogers, Mrs. O. D. Howard, Mrs. H. Maxwell, Mrs. J. E. Johnson, Mrs. T. H. Lyles, Mrs. E. Johnson, Mrs. J. H. Booker, Mrs. R. Chapman, Mrs. J. Q. Adams, Mrs. Valdo Turner, Mrs. R. C. Anderson, Mrs. N. Johnson, Mrs. W. Johnson. Young ladies assisting at punch table: Misses Ruth McGhee, Clara Howard, Gertrude Howard, Eunice Glass, Helen Anderson, Ethel Howell, Bertha Williams, Francis Elcott.

The service was in charge of Mr. W. H. Parker, assisted by Mr. Wm. Lawrence, Mr. B. Archer, Mr. J. H. Milton, Mr. Wm. Turner, Mr. J. B. Johnson.

"High Jinks Burlesquers."

The Attraction at the Star Next Week.

If one is looking for a perfect riot of fun, associated with genuinely clever comedy and specialty acts, good singing and meritorious dancing, there is no better place to find it than at the Star when the "High Jinks Burlesquers" will present the big musical comedy success by Dave Marion, entitled "Roseland." John Price and Phil Mills, two of the cleverest comedians in America, and a company of thirty people have been engaged to dispense the fun.

The production has proven to be one of the brightest musical comedies of years. It is a laugh producer and a side splitter from beginning to end, with never a dull line for a moment, the curtain rises to the opening scene until its finale. The story serves an excellent vehicle to introduce all manner of specialties and characteristic musical numbers of which there is an abundance. The scenery and costumes are very beautiful and elaborate in every detail. Extra! "Original Girl in Blue."

The Mean Thing.

She—I see an average man needs 1,600 pounds of food yearly.

TALK THAT SELLS MINES.

Nevada Man Gives Points on Booming Lucky Strikes.

They were in a group in the St. Francis lobby talking Rawhide prospects.

"Let's go up to Bonneau's room," suggested one of the gathering. "Too many people down here listening to everything we say."

"And you claim to be a Nevada mining man?" asked Frank Bonneau in a low voice. "Talk like this mean sales, man. We stay right here as long as there are interested listeners."

Then resuming his normal voice he laughed and continued: "Well, right after he made that lucky strike he flashed a new suit which has
